

PER I TURISTI STRANIERI: GUIDARE IN ITALIA

USEFUL TELEPHONE NUMBERS AND INTERNET LINKS

112 is the European emergency phone number to contact any emergency service throughout the EU. Please note that in Italy, this number is not yet activated in all Regions and Provinces. In this case, the usual numbers shown below are still valid.

112	Carabinieri.
113	Police.
118	Medical Emergency.
114	Social Services for Child Protection.
115	Fire brigade.
800.116.800	ACI Road Assistance - available toll free all year round, 24 hours a day - if calling from a foreign mobile phone.
803.116	ACI Road Assistance - available toll free all year round, 24 hours a day - if calling from an Italian landline or mobile phone.
339.99.43.116	Number reserved for deaf people to request ACI Road Assistance via SMS. The service is charged according to the mobile provider's rates.
117	Tax Police.
1515	Forest Rangers (forest-fires, environmental emergency).
1518	Information on traffic and roads conditions (in Italian).

Useful links to know more on traffic and roads:

<http://cciss.rai.it> (available in Italian);

<http://www.stradeanas.it> (available in Italian);

<http://autostrade.it> (available in Italian and English);

PER I TURISTI STRANIERI: GUIDARE IN ITALIA

<http://www.carabinieri.it/Internet/> (available in Italian, English, French, German and Spanish);

<http://www.poliziadistato.it> (available in Italian, English, French, German and Spanish);

<http://www.aiscat.it/> (available in Italian and English).

“LUCE VERDE” – TRAFFIC INFORMATION IN SELECTED AREAS

Motorists in the city of Rome, in the Region Latium and in the city of Milan can visit the website www.luceverde.it (available in Italian) (accessible also via www.aci.it) (available in Italian) for latest traffic information in the relevant areas.

Major information is also broadcast in Italian via the main radio and TV stations (frequency and timetable chart available on www.luceverde.it).

Real time updates (video) are provided on possible congestions, detours, accidents, street protests and road works.

